Year 2 - Expected (Most of the time)
Text Type
Date
I can use features of different text types
I can include genre and topic specific vocabulary I can write about real events, recording these simply and clearly I can use adjectives to describe I can use capital letters at the beginning of the sentence
I can use capital letters for names, days of the week, places and the personal pronoun I I can use full stops at the end of a sentence
I can use question marks
I can use exclamation marks I can use present and past tense mostly consistently
I can use and, or, but (co-ordination)
I can use when, if, that, because (subordination) I can segment words into phonemes and represent these by graphemes
I can spell many KS1 common exception words.
I can use s and es to form regular plurals correctly
I can use the prefix un I can add the suffixes -ing - ed -er -est to root words
I can write letters and numbers of the correct size, orientation and relationships to one another and to lower-case letters I can use finger spaces I can reread my writing to check that it makes sense and make changes with support
Year 2 - Greater Depth (Consistently doing all of	the above	e and :	the ob	jective	es belo	w)
I can reread my writing to check that it makes sense and independently make changes.
I can make simple additions, revision and proof read my writing
I can use commas in a list
I can use apostrophes to mark singular possession in nouns
I can use apostrophes in contractions I can add suffixes -ment, -ness, -ful, -ly to words and spell most words correctly.
I can join my handwriting in most of my writing								