

Once Upon a Time - History Knowledge Organiser - Term 4 - Donaldson

Key Vocabulary

traditional tale	A story that has been told and retold for many years and has therefore become a story that most people know.
fable	A short story that teaches a moral lesson. Fables usually include animals as characters .
moral	A message about how people should or should not behave.
culture	A shared set of values , beliefs and behaviours that are passed down through the years and become a way of life for a group of people.
folklore	The traditional stories and culture of a group of people.
artefact	An object made by a human being that usually has cultural or historical interest.

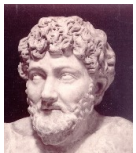

Key Historic People

Brothers Grimm

Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm were brothers from Germany who wrote down tales that they heard storytellers tell out loud. They then published these stories in a book that has been published in at least 70 languages.

Aesop

Aesop was a Greek storyteller who wrote fables that are still told today.

What have we already learnt?

We have already learnt about these words in a different topic

Iceberg Ahead!

- We learnt about the past and the present

Guess Who?

- We learnt about chronological and non-chronological order
 - We learnt about the features of a story in English